JOB SEARCH ETIQUETTE

It's no secret that your behavior at all stages of the job search process can determine whether or not you land a job. It doesn't matter how great your resume is or how much experience you have, you must still maintain outstanding job search etiquette. Here are some basic rules to help you make a positive first impression on the hiring manager.

- Keep your personal email address professional.
- Speak with your references before providing their names to employers. Always ask permission to share their contact information and take time to find out what they plan to say about you.
- Turn off your cell phone.
- Take extra care with your grooming and attire at job interviews. Wear clean pressed clothes, avoid heavy perfume or aftershave, polish your shoes and avoid too much make-up or loud ties.
- Be nice to everyone. Don't limit your best behavior to those who you think are important. How you treat the receptionist reflects on you just as much as how courteous you are to the head manager.
- Send a thank you note/letter. Keep your name top-of-mind and demonstrate genuine appreciation by writing thank you notes to the individuals with whom you interviewed.

JOB INFORMATION CENTER PROGRAMS

CAREER RESEARCH USING THE INTERNET

Wednesday, October 24th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The Internet is an amazing and helpful tool for many research needs. However, it can also seem overwhelming with the millions of websites out there. This workshop will teach participants where to go online to find concrete and incredible information on careers, industries, companies and related college and training programs. The program will be held in the Community Room. Registration is required for this free program.

WORD AND EXCEL BASICS FOR JOB SEEKERS

Wednesday, November 7th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

In this hands-on introduction to Word and Excel, we will focus on business uses including: creating a Word document, saving, editing/formatting and using tabs and indents; as well as how to create an Excel spreadsheet, using macros, inserting charts and formatting. Laptops will be provided. If you have been out of the workforce for a period of time this workshop will be a good computer skills refresher. A basic knowledge of computer usage would be helpful. The program will be held in the Community Room. Registration is required for this free program.

TWENTY TIMELY TIPS FOR THE BABY BOOMER JOB SEEKER

Wednesday, December 12th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

If you were born between 1946 and 1964, the baby boom years, and are finding it increasingly difficult to land an interview, let alone a job, you are encountering the reality of ageism, the most subtle form of job discrimination. This seminar provides you with twenty timely tips on how to position yourself in the marketplace, compete with recent college graduates, prepare a contemporary resume, sit for an interview with a person most likely one to three decades younger than yourself, and ultimately, land a dream job. Topics include getting around age discrimination, changing negatives into positives, maintaining energy and enthusiasm, and remaining confident no matter how lengthy the job search. This program will be held in the Community Room. Registration is required for this free program.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMS

Notice to Parents

We want to remind you that children under age 9 must be accompanied by an adult caregiver while in the library. Please be aware of the library's hours so that all children are picked up by closing time. Our only alternative for the protection of children left after closing is notifying the police. Please help us help your children.

Cell phones are a wonderful convenience. However, the use of cell phones in the library is a distraction and annoyance to others. As a courtesy to other patrons in the library you are required to turn your cell phone off when entering the library building. Thank you.
