CLASS OF 1996

PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE

Seniors, congratulations on your completion of twelve years spent completing requirements for your diploma. Enjoy the present celebration of your achievements as a high school graduate. May your future be filled with the promise of goals to be achieved.

Your character has been formed by the experiences of your past. By completing this major milestone, you have prepared yourself for the future. Glow in the presence of this achievement and go forth into the future attaining your next diploma, goal and achievement.

Curtis E. Fisher
Acting Principal

It is indeed, a pleasure to greet the senior class and to extend my sincere congratulations and best wishes to those who, very shortly, will be graduated from Hempstead High School.

Without question, graduation is recognized as an important achievement of which individual may be justly proud. It is well, however, to balance the pleasure and emotion evoked by such an occasion with the sober realization that each success is not an end in itself but the precursor of yet another challenge. L.M. Alcott stated it very simply one of the great goals to which all other achievements should lead. "Life is my challenge. May I graduate well, and earn some honors."

Theodore Holmes
Acting Assistant Principal

"True worth is in being, not seeming."

by Alice Cary

As you graduate and don the cap and gown, always remember that you represent survival. The roots of education that have been planted will service you well. Life's roads can be smooth or rough depending upon your chosen path. Wherever life takes you, remember to walk with pride knowing that Hempstead High salutes your success.

Pearl Reid
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 1995, remember this about change. Change is the end result of all true learning. Change involves three things: 1) a dissatisfaction with self---a felt void or need; 2) a decision to change -- to fill the void or need; and 3) a conscious dedication to the process of growth and change-- the willful act of making the change, doing something.

The person who risks nothing; does nothing; has nothing; is nothing; and becomes nothing. I want each of you read these two thoughts every time you want to use the words, "I can't". I wish you the best of everything life has to offer.

Reginald Stroughn
Assistant Principal

*Build today, then, strong and sure,
with a firm and ample base;*

*And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place.*

by Henry W. Longfellow

Congratulations on this auspicious occasion. Take on the world by storm for you hold the key. If you encounter doors that are locked, don't fret, forge ahead to try another. For every door that is not a pathway, there will be two others for your selection. Continue to strive high for the goals that you deserve to attain.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I am truly honored to have been selected the yearbook adviser for the Class of 1996. You accepted my opinions and displayed the belief that I needed. To those of you who were faithful to the end I would like to take this opportunity to thank you. But there were some who stand out in the crowd. To the following I say a special "THANK-YOU"

Rick Romero, my right arm man who never said "no"

Oluwatoyin Tella, the needle in my side who pushed and always said "what's next"

Keisha Nelson, my afternoon sunshine who would say, "okay, but I can't stay too long"

Sylvie Celestin, my eager eyed photographer, "you got any more film?"

Bertram Jackson, the math tallying man

Daniel Jean-Louis, the last minute man

Ms. Bernadette LaMont, the typist of all typists

Ms. Maria Baird, the copy queen

Mr. Renfroe, the connection maker

Mrs. Pearl Reid, the lender of personnel

Ms. Scher, the artist in residence

Mr. Nicharico, the computer wiz kid

Mr. Fisher, the faith builder

Mr. Watkins, the magic man

If by chance I have overlooked anyone who has been instrumental in making this project become a reality, please forgive me and know that you too are appreciated. To the Class of 1996, I wish each and everyone the very best in all of your future endeavors

Sincerely,

Ms. Brett Truitt
